

If the legislature provides funding for the building block entitled “Health care expenditure waste calculator”, then the intent language below is approved:

The Legislature intends that the Department of Health report by May 1, 2021 to the Health and Human Services Interim Committee on the findings from the health care waste calculator and recommended steps that the State could take to reduce wasteful spending.